

THE FIFTEENTH MEETING OF BEES

British Epidermo-Epidemiology Society

Theme: BEES and light

Thursday 30th March 2006

Venue: The Gateway Conference Centre, St Andrews, Scotland

For further details please e-mail jill.c.lamont@tuht.scot.nhs.uk or contact
Jill Lamont on 01382 632 821

Programme

9.30 am Coffee and registration

Morning session: Photodermatology/porphyria (Chair - Professor Hywel Williams)

- | | | |
|-----------------|---|--------------------------|
| 10.00 am | Invited talk – Epidemiology of Porphyria | Dr Bob Sarkany |
| 10.40 am | Submitted Abstract
Epidemiology of EPP : The UK Experience | Dr S Alex Holme |
| 10.55 am | Submitted Abstract
Prevalences of the chronic idiopathic and metabolic
photodermatoses in Scotland | Dr Robert Dawe |
| 11.10 | Tea/Coffee | |
| 11.30am | Chair: Dr. Sue Lewis-Jones
Invited overseas talk –
Prevalence of photodermatoses in Europe | Professor Thomas Diepgen |
| 12.10 pm | Invited talk - Epidemiology of sunscreen use | Professor Brian Diffey |
| 12.50 pm | Lunch | |
| 1.40 pm | BEES Annual General Meeting | |

Afternoon session: Phototherapy (Chair: Professor Jimmy Ferguson)

- | | | |
|---------|---|------------------------|
| 2.00 pm | Systematic review 1: Narrow-band UVB, broad-band UVB and PUVA for psoriasis – an update | Dr Robert Dawe |
| 2.30 pm | Submitted abstract
Is there a skin cancer risk with narrow-band UVB phototherapy? – preliminary data from the second phase of the Dundee follow-up study | Dr Ross Hearn |
| 2.45 pm | Systematic review 2: Interventions for polymorphic light eruption | Dr Tsui Chin Ling |
| 3.15 pm | Submitted Abstract
Many high dose phototherapy patients are not being reviewed | Dr Lorna Mackintosh |
| 3.30 pm | Short commentary: How many treatments of phototherapy are safe? | Professor Brian Diffey |
| 3.50 pm | Closing remarks | |
| 4.00 pm | Finish | |

For those interested in hearing the latest about dermatology training, Dr Sue Burge will be giving a talk on 'Undergraduate Dermatology' at 4.15 pm at the same venue – all local staff and BEES members welcome.