

THE BRITISH EPIDERMO-EPIDEMIOLOGY SOCIETY in conjunction with the Dowling Club

'How should UK dermatology services be configured?'

Tuesday 17th November 2009

at the Radisson Edwardian Grafton Hotel
130 Tottenham Court Road, London W1T 5AY

The meeting will be co-hosted by the Dowling Club, with kind support from Robin Graham-Brown (President), and Rosie Davis (Secretary), and will be followed by the Dowling Club Dinner in the Boardroom at BAD Headquarters, Willan House, 4 Fitzroy Square, London W1T 5HQ, with guest speaker, Professor Hywel Williams.

PROGRAMME

10.15-11.00am	Arrival and coffee
11.00-11.10am	Welcome and Introduction Professor Hywel Williams Chair, British Epidermo-Epidemiology Society
	Skin conditions : a Health Care Needs Assessment An Overview of the Health Care Needs Assessment update
11.10-12.00noon (40 mins + 10 mins questions)	Dr Julia Schofield. Principal Lecturer and Consultant Dermatologist, University of Hertfordshire
12.00-12.40am (30 mins + 10 mins questions)	A General Practitioner's perspective Dr Amanda Platts
12.40pm-1.30pm	Lunch
1.30-2.00pm (20 mins + 10 mins questions)	A Nurse's perspective Rebecca Penzer, Community Dermatology Nurse Specialist, Norfolk Community Health and Care
2.00-2.30pm (20 mins + 10 mins questions)	A Patient's perspective Rosemary Humphreys Member, National Eczema Society
2.30-3.00pm (20 mins + 10 mins questions)	A Commissioner's perspective Dr Martin McShane, Director of Strategic Planning and Clinical Engagement, NHS Lincolnshire
3.00-3.20pm	Tea/coffee

- 3.20pm-3.50pm
(20 mins + 10 mins questions)
- A Dermatologist's perspective
Dr Christina Green, Consultant Dermatologist,
The Queen Elizabeth Hospital, Kings Lynn
- 3.50-4.30pm
(30 mins + 10 mins questions)
- The Global Perspective
Professor Rod Hay,
President of the International Foundation for Dermatology
- 4.30-4.40pm
- Closing remarks
Professor Hywel Williams
- * * * * *
- 5.00-5.45pm
- Pre-dinner drinks at the British Association of Dermatologists
Headquarters, Willan House, 4 Fitzroy Square,
London W1T 5HQ
- 5.45pm
- Guest speaker introduced by Dr Robin Graham-Brown*
President of the Dowling Club
Professor Hywel Williams
Chair, British Epidermo-Epidemiology Society
'How to cheat in clinical trials'
- 6.30pm
- Dinner hosted by the Dowling Club
Held in the 1st floor lecture theatre and boardroom,
British Association of Dermatologists, Willan House,
4 Fitzroy Square, London W1T 5HQ